LETTER FROM CARSON

As I reflect on 2024, I'm amazed by God's provision for the AQ1 Foundation, the tremendous support we've received from volunteers and the impact we've been able to make through the Outdoor Ministry and Thy Kingdom Crumb.

When I explain our organization to people around the country, I'm often reminded of Jesus' message in Matthew 5, when he calls us to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world. Our ministries provide value and meet a great need for those we serve.

- Through TKC, we are on the front lines to help at-risk individuals struggling to make ends meet or facing food insecurity.

- Through Mountain Movers, we travel to remote areas to help children fulfill their outdoor dreams.

- Through Camp Conquerors, we give families and caregivers a break as we host their children free of charge for an entire week to help them fight the mental, emotional and spiritual battles that medically disadvantaged children and those in the foster care system face regularly.

All of these are crucial needs we are meeting, but we stand firm in our posture of service, being the salt of the earth and light of the world. What does that look like for the AQ1 Foundation?

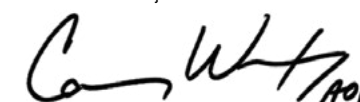

- It's Thy Kingdom Crumb bringing light into some of the darkest places around Indianapolis where we pray for guests, connect them to local churches, feed them a restaurant-quality meal, look them in the eyes and provide other much-needed personal hygiene kits or coats.

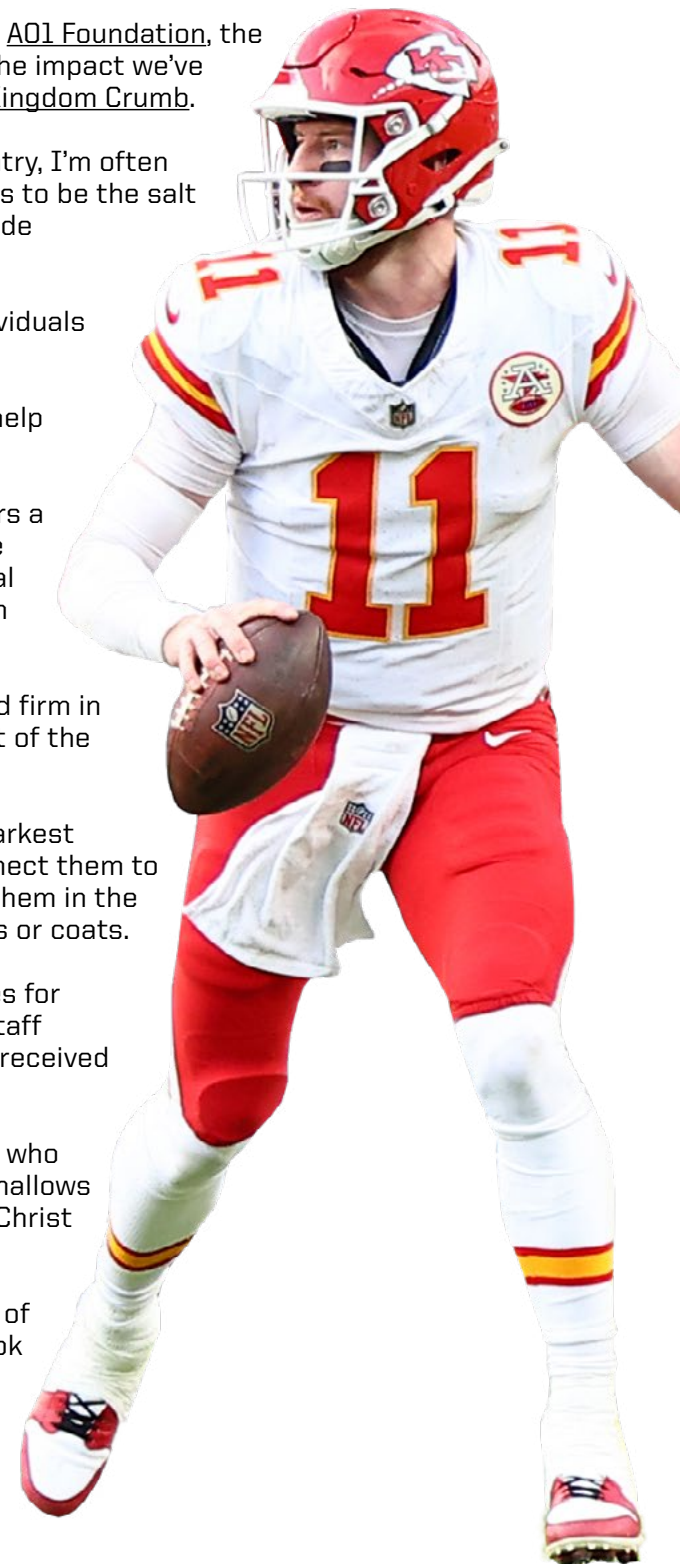

- It's Mountain Movers providing dream outdoor adventures for children who have experienced medical hardships or our staff standing shoulder to shoulder with families who have just received a new diagnosis for their child.

- It's our Camp Conquerors counselors praying with a child who has been suffering from depression while roasting marshmallows or a leader baptizing a camper after they decide to follow Christ for the first time.

As we launch into 2025, our commitment to being the salt of the earth and light of the world has only intensified. We look forward to all God has in store for us this year and beyond!

God Bless,

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR REPORT

As we close another memorable year at the A01 Foundation, we are incredibly grateful and have a continued posture of service. We have reached new heights as an organization thanks to the unwavering support of over 300 volunteers and the families and businesses supporting our work financially.

In the Outdoor Ministry, our staff felt led to serve children either in the foster care system or those recently adopted. In response, we hosted an additional week of Camp Conquerors to surround these children with Godly counselors and others facing the same challenges. In total, our staff and volunteers hosted 141 children through three weeks of Camp Conquerors. Thanks to your generosity, every child in 2024 was aligned with a sponsor and attended camp free of charge.

Through Mountain Movers, we continued to push into wild and remote places to encourage children to disconnect from their devices and connect with God through the outdoors. We traveled thousands of miles, processed hundreds of pounds of wild game and impacted countless lives for eternity.

At the start of 2024, Thy Kingdom Crumb set a goal of 65 food truck outreaches to serve over 12,000 people throughout the Indianapolis area. However, we quickly recognized just how great of a need existed and that we were capable of more. With a grateful heart, I’m proud to share that our team hosted 79 outreaches and served over 14,000 free meals to shatter our goals for the year. Our guests were hungry for the delicately crafted meals we provided but also for the truth and hope of God’s word.

The A01 Foundation enters 2025 with a passion for wholeheartedly serving others through our ministries. We want to model what Jesus said in Matthew 25, “Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.”

Thank you and God bless,

‘Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.’
Matthew 25:40 NIV

GOD'S LOVE
FOR HIS PEOPLE.”

Thy Kingdom Crumb was launched in 2021 to serve free meals to at-risk individuals throughout the greater Indianapolis area; to meet people where they live, work and play; to provide physical nourishment; to expose guests to the Gospel and the love of Christ; and to connect them to local churches and like-hearted organizations.

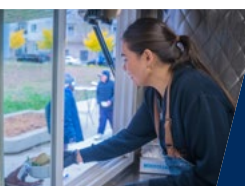

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

With a heart to serve at-risk populations, we hold multiple outreaches each week, providing 150-250 meals in areas throughout Marion County.

WHO IS AT-RISK?

A few examples of the at-risk populations we serve are people with disabilities, experiencing homelessness, battling addiction or facing chronic health issues.

ALWAYS FREE

God gave us all the greatest free gift through His son, Jesus Christ, and we desire to share that love by providing free food to anyone and everyone.

FRESH & DELICIOUS

Our professionally-trained chef and volunteers source the freshest ingredients to create hand-crafted meals that are filling and nutritious.

PRAYER & RESOURCES

Many of those we encounter struggle with basic human needs. Our staff and volunteers love to listen, pray with and provide resources to our guests.

WHO WE SERVE

One of our favorite parts about Thy Kingdom Crumb is the perfect depiction of Heaven created at our outreaches. Often joining us during that two-hour window will be businessmen and women, college students, homeless individuals, veterans and people of different ethnicities and from all walks of life.

Every person we encounter is unique and has a story to tell, so it's impossible to describe who we serve through one single individual. However, we hope by introducing you to a few of our regular guests, you'll start to see that example of God's love for us all.

TKC RALLIES BEHIND HVAF AFTER FIRE DEVASTATES FACILITY

For Andrea Carlile, the evening of October 26, 2024, wasn't dissimilar to a typical Saturday night for her and her husband as they scrolled through the channels on television. At the same time, Caleb Wuethrich, Director of Thy Kingdom Crumb, was at his home across town and decided to tune in to the local news. What they saw next is something neither will ever forget. Both watched as the Manchester Apartments of Helping Veterans and Families of Indiana (HVAF) was consumed by fire. When the smoke cleared, everyone was safe, but 48 veterans were once again without a home.

In the days following, Wuethrich traveled to HVAF to offer the support of Thy Kingdom Crumb. He arrived in a chaotic environment as the organization scrambled to find temporary housing for these veterans. "Coming in with a calm spirit was powerful," said Wuethrich, "We just gathered in a circle right in front of the building and made a request known to God to just steady everyone there, for the Holy Spirit to uplift everyone and to just provide wisdom through this time of uncertainty."

Today, 10% of the homeless population in Indianapolis are veterans. HVAF has served Indiana for more than 30 years by providing life-changing services beyond housing, including employment services, case management, essential food, clothing and hygiene items. As Community Engagement Coordinator, Carlile has enjoyed building a relationship with Thy Kingdom Crumb through food truck outreaches in the parking lot. "One thing I love about TKC is everyone on staff is so genuine and not just with food." She added, "It's the heart of the people that work there that makes it so special."

Together, the two decided that Thy Kingdom Crumb could increase its frequency of visiting the facility and that the veterans could be transported by bus back to enjoy a hot meal at the food truck. The first outreach after the fire came on November 15 and guests were treated to a brisket chili with jalapeno cornbread or a grilled cheese caprese with tomato bisque.

Carlile shared, "It was hot, absolutely delicious, and that's enough to brighten someone's day or even their week." Wuethrich also recalls that day was a particularly memorable outreach for the staff and volunteers. "There was a lot of thankfulness, a lot of joy and some really good conversation."

Thy Kingdom Crumb returned to HVAF for two more outreaches before the end of the year and remains committed to serving veterans as the rebuilding process begins.

OUTDOOR MINISTRY

The Outdoor Ministry provides unforgettable outdoor experiences for children who have endured life-altering circumstances through two programs: Mountain Movers and Camp Conquerors.

Mountain Movers creates once-in-a-lifetime hunting, fishing and hiking adventures for children with life-altering medical conditions.

Camp Conquerors is a free overnight summer camp for children with life-altering medical conditions or who are in the foster care system.

WHY THE OUTDOORS?

Hunting, fishing, hiking and other outdoor activities allow children to unplug from technology and engage with us on a personal and spiritual level.

IS IT ETHICAL?

We believe that when done and taught correctly, hunting and fishing are undoubtedly ethical, vital for conservation and can provide nutrition for families.

CREATING MEMORIES

We craft adventures to match desires, including destination and species. Each adventurer receives free taxidermy and game processing.

FAMILIES WELCOME

Our staff holds various events throughout the year for past participants and their families to come together and form relationships.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

On each adventure we read devotionals and pray together. Camp includes worship, biblical teachings and small group discussions.

DISCIPLESHIP

We want to create lasting relationships with our participants and believe that their first time at camp or on an adventure is only the beginning.

BITTNER ON A SPIRIT-LED JOURNEY FROM A01 TO MINISTRY

What comes to mind when you think about the scrapbook moments from junior high to college? A sporting event? Prom? Graduation?

The Bittner family from Dickinson, N.D., has experienced plenty of those exciting moments with their sons, Grant and Owen. However, they have also experienced a loss that few can fathom when their daughter, Grace (9), passed away after a life-long battle with cancer.

The A01 Foundation has had a front-row seat through every high and every low in Owen's life since his first time at Camp Conquerors in 2018. Cole Scherbenske, now the director of the Outdoor Ministry, recalls having Owen in his cabin when he served as a counselor at that first camp. "I remember him being pretty quiet, he kept to himself for the most part, but throughout camp, I saw him open up and look for relationships with people."

Owen followed the path the A01 Foundation had in mind when it created the Outdoor Ministry. He went on a Mountain Movers adventure to Montana with his brother the following year. He has attended camp six times and now serves as a counselor for the junior high camp. "It was the relationships that kept bringing me back," said Bittner. "These people told me about Jesus and showed me what living for Him was like."

Bittner enjoys guiding others in their faith, and through his spiritual development in the Outdoor Ministry, the Lord has revealed his passion and heart for ministry. Now a freshman at North Dakota State University, where his brother is also enrolled, Owen is pursuing that conviction and desires to become a pastor one day. As an active member of Chi Alpha, a college ministry, he participates in a small group, started a "preach lab" to practice writing and delivering sermons and is constantly sharing his faith with those he encounters on campus. "I've just seen him go from a quiet little boy to a man who is adamant about sharing his passion and his love for Jesus Christ," Scherbenske shared.

Owen plans to return to camp this summer to continue discipling the campers he's built a relationship with as a counselor. "When you are a part of this ministry, you are so loved that you want to go back," said Bittner. "You get to hear about the hope we have in Jesus, and the best part is you get to see it and experience it."

WHO WE SERVE

On each Mountain Movers adventure, we travel to remote areas to help children with medical challenges take a break from their situation and enjoy God's creation. However, we hope these trips are just the beginning of our relationship with these families.

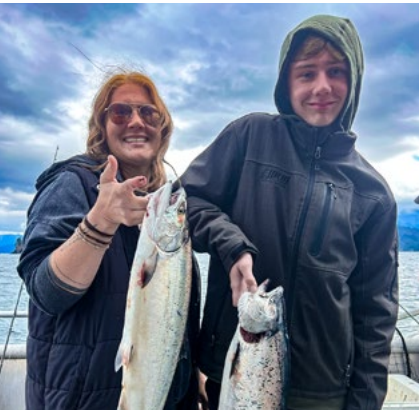

We try our best to craft every adventure to match each child's desired destination and activity, so we hope these adventurers give you a glimpse of the opportunities available through Mountain Movers.

JIMI HOOVER

AGE: 15
HOMETOWN: Mandan, ND
MEDICAL CONDITION: Burkett Lymphoma
ADVENTURE: Montana Bull Elk

"I enjoyed being outdoors, getting fresh air and the company I was with on the trip. I had great talks with Cole about Jesus and the ups and downs of life. It was definitely a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity and still the best burgers I've ever eaten!"

EASTON KIECKBUSCH

AGE: 12
HOMETOWN: Fertile, MN
MEDICAL CONDITION: Vascular Ehlers-Danlos
ADVENTURE: Alaska Fishing

"I enjoyed fishing for halibut, hanging out with my family and meeting cool people. I would recommend it to others because it's a good community. Camp Conquerors and Mountain Movers made it so I could do lots of fun and new stuff."

KINLEY CRON

AGE: 12
HOMETOWN: Dickinson, ND
MEDICAL CONDITION: Epilepsy
ADVENTURE: Montana Hiking

"I got to go rock climbing, white water rafting, zip-lining and we visited hot springs. I would recommend it to others because it is so much fun to travel and do things that I have never done before. It was a great experience being able to do these things and find new hobbies that I enjoy."

WHO WE SERVE

The idea behind Camp Conquerors was to bring together children who have faced significantly challenging life circumstances, but what it has evolved into is beyond anything we could have imagined. Children who have never been to camp arrive as strangers and leave with new, lasting friendships. Those who have attended camp can't wait to return and reconnect with their peers.

These campers are only a few examples of the children that make up our incredible community of campers!

JULIA HEPPNER

AGE: 17
HOMETOWN: Warroad, MN
MEDICAL CONDITION: Stroke
YEARS AT CAMP: 3 Years

"Camp was the first time I felt real, true love from everyone there. I had never felt the Holy Spirit's presence as I did that week during worship. I have made some of my closest friends at camp that I hope to have for the rest of my life."

CONNER MARQUART

AGE: 14
HOMETOWN: Devils Lake, ND
MEDICAL CONDITION: Cerebral Palsy
YEARS AT CAMP: 4 Years

"My favorite part about camp was probably the archery tag. I'd recommend it to anyone because it's loads of fun and there's something new every year."

COLTON FLIFLET

AGE: 16
HOMETOWN: Wahpeton, ND
MEDICAL CONDITION: Brain Tumor
YEARS AT CAMP: 4 Years

"I love Camp Conquerors because of all the fun activities they plan each year. I have met many people and made a lot of friends. I would only recommend camp to those who really love to have fun and meet new people because that's what camp is all about."

A01 ADDS THIRD CAMP TO SERVE CHILDREN IN FOSTER CARE

Since 2018, more than 500 children have attended Camp Conquerors in North Dakota. There have been countless snacks served, rope swings into the pond, chapel messages shared and most importantly, lives transformed each week.

For the last several years, camp director, Lexie Scherbenske, has felt a calling to expand camp to begin serving the foster care community and children who have recently been adopted. "We've seen how impactful camp has been for our kids who have medical conditions, and so we wanted to offer that for foster youth," she shared. "We know what they've been through, and they deserve the same experiences that any other kid gets in the summertime."

Through their existing partnership with North Dakota 4-H, the A01 Foundation decided to add a third week of camp in 2024 to serve those children, but the process of getting ready for camp was unlike any prep they had done before. Scherbenske and their team spent months meeting with state employees, social workers and camp directors in other states so they were fully prepared for check-in on July 24.

Marcia Beachum from Moorhead, MN, has adopted three boys from foster care and thought her son, Michael, would be a great fit. "I think this camp validates their situation. When they are surrounded by their peers, they can build that camaraderie and realize they aren't alone in the struggles they face." Marcia shared that one of the reasons she felt comfortable sending Michael to camp was the staff-to-camper ratio of nearly 1:1.

This year, 21 children attended the inaugural foster care camp in Washburn, N.D., where they enjoyed activities like archery tag, basketball, kayaking, woodburning picture frames and more. For Scherbenske the highlight was seeing the relationships form throughout the week. "You could tell they were all pretty nervous which is typical for kids coming to camp," but she added, "I know that they left knowing there are people who love them dearly and are there to encourage and support them."

To only reinforce that idea, chapel messages focused on the love of Jesus for each camper. After recapping the week with her son, Marcia sees it as, "an investment into their heart, mind and soul that stays with them." She added, "That kind of thing can quiet the distractions in the world and their mind and honestly can change the entire trajectory of their life."

The response to the foster care camp was incredibly positive, so the A01 Foundation has decided to add a second week of this camp in 2025 to serve both junior-high and senior-high students.
